the better team won." He was keenly disappointed, but had no excuses to make or reservations when he offered his congratulations.

TORONTO TELEGRAM.

Not in a decade has the Rugby world witnessed so rude a shock as on Saturday. Every precedent was hurled to the ground, smashed and trampled underfoot. The defeat of the Argonauts for the Canadian championship by the Hamilton Alerts was a job in itself, but what thirdered the Rugby diffide to the very foundation was the way it was done.

A chain is as strong as the link, but when that chain is wrecked, twisted and finally torn asunder by its very strongest circle then it was too weak for the strain put upon it.

With supposing the strongest link of the chain, the very one demonstrated and proved so under the severe strain of the battle all season, the Alerts were beaten in this very stronghold.

Crumpled up and hurled to the ground again in its smashing drive, the Alerts tipped and tumbled through all opposition in a matter of a few minutes. The very line that had stood like a fortress against the best decision all season—where was no picking left or right—was at defeat.

It was apparent from the very outset that the Alerts had a better line—no machine, that no other line had yet exhibited—very shrewdly, indeed, in its driving and hurling was futile, it came to the spectators like a bolt from the blue. Every other line of the season had withered before its onslaught.

This was the line that had smashed stars, had trampled on Montreal, had trampled through Hamilton, had plumed its vanity.

MARKETS and FINANCE

Tuesday, Dec. 3.—As usual, at this time of the year, the Tuesday market was very quiet today. Only a few signs were to be seen. Potatoes were not in demand, but prices did not change in any way, but produce sold briskly at the prices asked. Potatoes were very plentiful and sold at $1.15 a bag, while some of the farmers sold at $1.05 a bushel for the same at the end of the week.
